NATIONAL COUNCIL OF HUD LOCALS 222

Subject: Policy on "Limited Personal Use" of Government Office Equipment Including Information Technology

Scope: The scope of this supplement encompasses the Department's proposal to implement a new policy on the "limited personal use" of HUD's office equipment, including the use of information technology (IT) resources.

1. Confidentiality: Management agrees that computer users have an expectation of confidentiality, e.g., personal information that Management becomes aware of is treated in a confidential manner.
2. Union Notice: Management agrees to notify the Local Union of the removal of an employee's access rights to computer resources.
3. Internet: Management agrees that employees may access the Internet, including sites which are not HUD-administered sites, via the HUD-approved browser, so long as the sites are not considered to be inappropriate as described by the policy.
4. Union Use: Management agrees that the "Limited Personal Use" policy does not affect the Union's use of office equipment as authorized by the HUD/AFGE Agreement.
5. Policy: Management agrees that HUD has adopted the Recommended Executive Branch Model Policy/Guidance on "Limited Personal Use" of Government Office Equipment Including Information Technology.
